

The diagram illustrates the multiplication of two polynomials using a grid of boxes. The first polynomial has 7 terms and the second has 5 terms. The grid contains 35 boxes, some of which are shaded to represent the products of the terms. A colon is placed to the right of the grid, followed by a row of 10 boxes, representing the result of the multiplication.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]